FORMS OF ADMISSION

Selection Procedure

- Admission procedure is carried out in a form of a selection procedure in order to ensure that the admitted candidates dispose of the necessary skills and abilities. The admission committee, on the basis of results of the entrance examination, determines the point limit with a minimum number of points (of total points) required for admission of an applicant.

Rules of Selection Procedure

MEDIAMATICS AND CULTURAL HERITAGE (full-time, part-time form of study):

The entrance examination consists of two tests:

1. The test of personal abilities allowing differentiation of risk and multidimensional performance capabilities of cognitive strategies as a necessary precondition for completion of a bachelor degree study programme. (Note: The test on entrance exam eligibility is provided by an external company.)
2. The knowledge test in the range of secondary curriculum subjects of the Slovak language and literature, Social Studies / Civics and Informatics.

The weight of the personal abilities' test is 2/3 and the weight of the knowledge test is 1/3. Furthermore participation and ranking in national and international competitions or other relevant achievements and awards as well as other extracurricular activities in the field related to the study programme will also be taken into account (max 10% of the total score of the entrance examination).

TEACHER TRAINING STUDY PROGRAMMES (full-time, part-time form of study):

Teaching in combination with the English Language

The applicants are admitted without entrance exams, based on the following criteria:

For subjects in combination with the English language preference shall be given to those applicants who in the state school-leaving examination succeeded in the external part at level B2 and achieved at least 60% and at level B1 at least 75%, further of importance are the applicant's academic performance at secondary school with an emphasis on those subjects he/she wants to study, and the results in the subjects relating to the basis of the selected study programmes; participation, respectively results in national and international rounds of the subject competitions (Olympiáda), secondary scientific activities (SOČ), state examinations and certificates of foreign languages are also taken into account. In case of equal number of points achieved it also is the overall grade average that determines the score.

The outcome of the external part of the school leaving exam in the English language will be multiplied by the coefficient as follows: Level B2 2 x %, reached by a student in the examination; Level B1: 1 x %, reached by a student in the examination.
