

NAME – Project Statement Proposal Title

Organize your Project Statement Proposal in order to the following guidelines and use them as sections of text in your Project statement Proposal.

Introduction:

Introduce the research topic. Place the project in academic context within UNIZA and UC Berkeley - Engineering by referring to major works at the UC Berkeley - Engineering on the subject.

Objectives:

Clearly define the aims of the proposed stay at the UC Berkeley - Engineering.

Methodology:

Explain the approach, methods and plan you will use (for example, interviews, library research, laboratory experiments, etc.). Explain the use of proposed research whether is quantitative or qualitative.

Significance:

Explain the importance of the project for the proposed field, for UNIZA, for Slovak Republic and your own professional development. Indicate what effect you expect that this opportunity will have on your teaching or professional work at UNIZA. Describe briefly the expected impact of your participation on UNIZA and your professional field.

Evaluation and Dissemination:

Describe plans for assessment and distribution of research results in the Slovak Republic and elsewhere, if applicable.

Duration:

Explain how the project can be completed within the time period proposed.

English Proficiency:

Describe your English, use of English and level of competence in reading, writing and speaking.

Notes: The project statement of no more than six single-spaced pages (approx. 4,000 words, graphics and pictures are welcome, if necessary).