TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

Basic condition of admission

The basic condition for admission to master's degree study (study programme of the second degree) is the full completion of the first degree of university study (Higher Education Act, no. 131/2002 Coll.) in the same or related field of study. In case of a foreign applicant or a student who has completed his / her study abroad, he / she shall submit along with the application form (no later than the date of enrolment) a decision on the recognition of the certificate of completion of the first degree of higher education recognized by a relevant institution in the Slovak Republic.

Other conditions of admission

1. No entrance exams

Applicants will be admitted to study without entrance exams if they meet the legal conditions for master's degree study (see Basic condition for admission) and the number of applicants does not exceed the planned capacity and are bachelor's degree graduates of the same or related study programme or are graduates of other higher education institutions of the same study programme. If the applicant has submitted all the required enclosures with the application form, the admission procedure takes place without the personal participation of the applicants.

Graduates of a related field of study will take an entrance examination (oral interview) to verify their ability to complete the second degree of study and to verify their knowledge of the given field of study and the study programme concerned.

2. Admission Procedure

If the number of applicants for study exceeds the planned capacity, applicants who are bachelor's degree graduates of the given field of study or are graduates of other higher education institutions of the same field of study will be admitted on the basis of the admission procedure during which the study results achieved during final state examination at the bachelor's degree will be assessed. The ranking of applicants will be drawn up on the basis of achieved study results at the final state examination*.

If the applicant has submitted all the required enclosures with the application form, the admission procedure takes place without the personal participation of the applicants.

Graduates of a related field of study will take an entrance examination (oral interview) to verify their ability to complete the second degree of study and to verify their knowledge of the given field of study and the study programme concerned.

3. Written and oral command of Slovak language or Czech language is required for study at the Faculty.

 in the case of a same points, the ranking of the applicants concerned shall be determined as a split point.*

ADMISSION OF FOREIGN STUDENTS

The basic and other terms and conditions of admission are applicable as for the applicants from abroad as for the applicants from Slovakia.

Foreign students who study in a foreign language (i.e. not Slovak), pay the tuition fee as stated in § 92 Subsection 8 (Higher Education Act). The tuition fee is specified by the UNIZA directive and published for the respective academic year on the university website. Foreign students who study in the Slovak language do not have to pay the tuition fee. Applicants from the Czech Republic who want to apply and study at UNIZA can use the application form valid in the Czech Republic. Applicants who do not actively speak Slovak or Czech are required to attend the language training (it is possible to attend the Slovak language courses at UNIZA). For foreign applicants who were accepted on the basis of intergovernmental agreements, bilateral agreements or Slovak government grants, terms and conditions stated in respective documents are applicable.

APPLICATION FORM

Application forms are to be submitted for individual study programmes.

In case the applicant is interested in more study programmes, it is necessary to apply for each one individually, including payment of the respective admission procedure fees.

Applicants have to fill in the form Prihláška na vysokoškolské štúdium - 2. Stupeň or they can also use an electronic application form that can be found on the university website: <https://vzdelavanie.uniza.sk/prijimacky/index.php> or on the education portal: <https://prihlaskavs.sk/sk/>. In the case of an electronic application, it is necessary to follow the instructions given in the E-application form System.

In case of incomplete application form, applicants will be requested to complete it.

In case of absence or failure of entrance exams, the Faculty does not refund the admission fee. If the applicant wants to participate in the admission procedure at several faculties of UNIZA or programmes of the Faculty, the application forms must be submitted separately to each faculty or programme with payment of the relevant admission fee.
