TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

Basic condition of admission

The basic condition for the admission to the bachelor's degree study programme (first degree) is the full completion of secondary education or full secondary vocational education (Higher Education Act, n.131/2002 Coll.). In the case of a foreign applicant or a student who has completed secondary education abroad, the education is comparable with an education completed by a school leaving examination in the Slovak Republic. Applicant who has completed secondary education abroad will submit along with the application form or more precisely no later than the date of enrolment a document on completion of secondary education recognized by a relevant institution in the Slovak Republic.

Other conditions of admission

1. No entrance exams, the Faculty will accept the applicants who meet the following criteria:

- applicants from grammar schools who have reached the arithmetic mean of marks at the year-end report for the penultimate year of study (not final year) up to 1.7 (inclusive),
- applicants from secondary vocational schools, associated schools and academies who have reached the arithmetic mean of marks at the year-end report for the penultimate year of study (not final year) up to 1.5 (inclusive),
- in the current school year passed NPS (SCIO) tests in general study prerequisites or mathematics and their score was at least 60 percent,
- secondary school graduates who during their secondary school study were successful solvers of the Olympiads, Students' Professional Activities (SPA) or international and national competitions related to the content of the study programme and ranked among 1st to 5th place.

Compliance with one of the conditions mentioned in (a) to (d) above is sufficient for admission without entrance exams. Other candidates will have to pass the entrance exams.

2. Entrance exams

Applicants who do not meet the terms and conditions for admission without entrance exams will pass written general knowledge tests. The general knowledge test verifies the basic prerequisites and abilities that students need to successfully complete their university study. The test contains a quantitative part (simple mathematical tasks, analytical and logical thinking, judgment, inference), a verbal part (ability to analyse the linguistic means of the Slovak language in terms of their grammatical, lexical and stylistic characteristics, meaning and form in vocabulary) and a general knowledge overview (orientation in current domestic and foreign events).

Applicants will be admitted on the basis of the results of the admission procedure according to the order of the total number of points achieved, depending on the planned capacity. The final decision about the results of the admission procedure is made by the dean of the Faculty of security Engineering UNIZA on the basis of a proposal of the selection committee of the Faculty. The Dean is authorised to supplement the state of accepted applicants to the first year of bachelor's degree study programmes to the expected number of applicants who met the conditions for admission to another bachelor's degree study programme but were not accepted due to the capacity of the initially chosen study programme.

In chosen bachelor's degree study programmes, in case of vacant places, there is a possibility of organizing a second round of the admission procedure. The list of the bachelor's degree study programmes for the second round of the admission procedure, the deadline for submitting the application form and the date of admission procedure will be published by June 21, 2021. The conditions of admission and the form of the admission procedure for the bachelor's degree study programmes are the same as in the first round of the admission procedure.

Written and oral command of the Slovak or Czech language is required for study at the Faculty.
